- Tasting Notes:
  - Colour: Bright straw yellow.
  - Nose: Delicate, floral, honeydew melon and white nectarine fruit with complex oak characters.
  - Palate: The 2008 Warrenmang Estate Chardonnay is bursting with classical Pyrenees peach, melon and nectarine flavours, gracefully melding with soft, savoury oak from 10 months maturation in new and old French barrels.

A sweet softness carries the delicate fruit right through into a complex back palate where there is a harmonious balance of fruit, subtle oak and a nutty creaminess acquired through 9 months of lees stirring in barrel.
